

Best Alphington Walks

'Alphington is an ideal location for walkers to explore the valleys & rolling hills south of Exeter.'

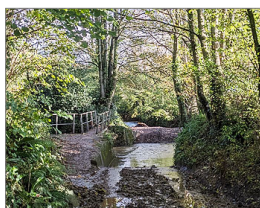

You won't find better walks in this area!

Alphington Walks

Walk 1 Alphington Brook Ford (1.9 miles)

This pleasant but short pub walk starts at Alphington church and follows the Green Circle (a circular route around Exeter) until it turns into Crab Lane possibly dating back to the Middle Ages.

Charles Dickens bought Mile End House, Church Road , for his father.

Download Route

GPX / FIT files

Near Alphington Church

New Inn in Alphington

Alphington Walks

Walk 2 Alphington to Ide (4.2 miles)

A pleasant pub walk to Ide.

As you descend into Ide, look south towards Haldon, where a Roman Signal Post has been discovered .

Download Route

GPX / FIT files

Near Alphington Church

The Twisted Oak (nr Ide)

Alphington Walks

Walk 3 Alphington to Exeter circular (6.6 miles)

A delightful circular 7 mile hike to Exeter, using footpaths and quiet lanes . It follows the Green Circle into Barley Valley Mature Reserve & Exeter bypassing all major roads then continues along the canal into Exeter Quay with ample opportunities to take a break.

Download Route

GPX / FIT files

Near Alphington Church

Several: Exeter Quay