Clyst St Mary & Sowton Village Walk

Walk 1 Sowton Village (4.1 miles)

An easy and pleasant rural walk to Sowton Village passing Bishop's Court, dating back to the Middle Ages, with its now lost deer park.

A main Roman Road from Exeter to Axminster used to go through this village. The start of the walk runs through the 1549 Prayer Book Rebellion battlefield.

Clyst St Mary & Sowton Village Walk

Walk 2 Cat Fiddle (3.4 miles)

An easy pub walk along the Roman Road to Lyme Regis then at the Cat Fiddle turn inland and follow footpaths to St Mary's Church, Winslade Park.

On Whit Sunday in 1549 first English-language Prayer Book was introduced in English churches. This change sparked a rebellion in the West Country, where around 10,000 people marched to Exeter, demanding the return of the traditional Latin Mass and the suppression of the new Prayer Book.
